Workshop Description:

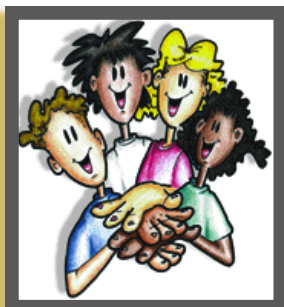

During this workshop, participants will create a variety of foldables that can be used as note taking tools, end of unit projects, and organization tools. Participants will also learn ways to use foldables as stand-alone tools and how they can be placed into composition books. The ideas shared in this workshop are applicable to any grade level!

Presenter:

Shauna Tinich

Shauna Tinich has 18 years of teaching experience in the elementary and middle school settings. Currently Shauna teaches all levels of sixth grade science at Haysville West Middle School. She has a Bachelor of Arts in Elementary Education from Central College of Iowa and a Master's of Science in Geoscience from Mississippi State University. Shauna has been trained as a trainer of Dinah Zike Foldables.
