WORKSHOP DESCRIPTION:

Google's digital platform is great for easily sharing information and assignments between teachers and their students. Microsoft's ongoing commitment to create more inclusive and collaborative learning environments has continued with the arrival of powerful updates to Office 365 Education. This workshop will focus on how Google Classroom and Office 365 Education enables teachers to engage every learner.

PRESENTER: Lisa Cundiff & Mark Kane

Lisa Cundiff is the Director of Instructional Technology for Haysville USD 261 public schools. She has a BA in Education from Arkansas State University and a ME in Educational Administration from Wichita State University.

Mark Kane has been involved with the Haysville School District since he was in preschool at Rex Elementary. He graduated from Campus High School and obtained a Bachelor of Science in Biology/Genetics at the University of Kansas. Mark taught two years at Maize South High School. At this time he is a System Analyst for Haysville USD 261, managing different software systems and helping with various technology needs of our students, teachers and staff.
