Workshop Description:

Participants will learn the basics of implementing Problem/Project Based Learning in their classrooms. Discussions will center around the Gold Standard Project Based Learning Rubrics provided by the PBLWorks and Buck Institute for Education. Session will focus on differentiating between project vs. Project/Problem Based Learning, process for creating effective PBL, assessing PBL, and insights/experiences to help with smooth implementation of PBL in your classroom.

Presenter: Deb Hamm

Deb Hamm has over 30 years of experience educating students and leading, coaching, and mentoring educators in public schools within several Kansas districts. Her background is in elementary education, but she has been in leadership roles at the secondary level. She has been an instructor in Curriculum and Instruction and Leadership at WSU since 2003. Deb has a BA in Elementary Education, a ME in Educational Administration and Supervision, and an EdD in Educational Administration. She is an Agency Trainer for Adaptive Schools with Thinking Collaborative. Deb currently works for WSU as Co-Director for Corbin Connect, Kansas Mentoring and Induction Center Facilitator, and a Teacher Apprentice Program (TAP) Success Coach.
