USD261 does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, sex, disability, or military status, in admission or access to, or treatment or employment in its programs and activities. Any person having inquiries concerning Haysville Public School's compliance with the regulations may contact the Assistant Superintendent for Personnel, Gillian Macias, 1745 W. Grand, Haysville, KS 67060, 316-554-2200.

Workshop Description

Participants will develop a deeper understanding of steps necessary to move to the next professional level. Topics will include; finding the next step, resume writing, interviewing, and transitioning to the next step. The format will be interactive and participant driven. Role play and real-life examples will be used to make learning as relevant as possible. Participants will leave with a plan for moving to their "next step."

Presenter Information

Dr. Michael Clagg began his 43-year career in public education as a Language Arts teacher in Lindsay, Oklahoma. He moved to McPherson, Kansas where he taught for a year before moving to Ft. Scott, Kansas. After a year teaching at Ft. Scott High School, Dr. Clagg enrolled at Pittsburg State University, where he earned his Administrative Endorsement. He served as Assistant Principal at Pittsburg High School before moving to Arkansas City to become their High School Principal. He then became Assistant Superintendent at Newton before coming to Haysville as Assistant Superintendent. Dr. Clagg has been a guest lecturer at Tabor College, Sterling College, Bethel College, Hesston College and Newman University. He served as an Adjunct Professor at Baker University and Wichita State University.
