WORKSHOP DESCRIPTION:

Creating Safe Spaces for LGBTQ Youth in School is a training designed for K-12 educators to explore how to create a safe, inclusive environment for all students, regardless of sexual orientation, gender identity or gender expression. During this highly interactive training participants will engage in activities that will help them come away with a better understanding of:

- ◆ Definitions and relevant terminology to assist with communication about this topic
- ◆ How to be a better ally to LGBT students
- ◆ How to ensure your classroom and/or school is safe for LGBT students
- ◆ Data about the issues LGBTQ Youth face

PRESENTER: AL HOFFMAN & LIZ HAMOR

Al Hoffman - He became a school psychologist for USD 259 after obtaining his Master of Education degree in Educational Psychology and Educational Specialist degree in School Psychology in the late 90s. When not administering psychological testing and consulting with teachers, Al enjoys carpentry, singing with the Heart of America Men's Chorus, playing the piano, working out, advocating for LGBT rights, and spending quality time with friends and family. Al GLSENs when all students are able to be safe in their school!

Liz Hamor - She is currently a Stay-at-Home-Mom and part-to full-time GLSEN volunteer. Prior to choosing to stay home to raise her two entertaining children, she taught Kindergarten and Second Grade after earning her Bachelor degrees in Spanish and Elementary Education, and her Masters in Elementary Education with Bilingual and English as a Second Language endorsements. When she's not cheering on her kids in their various activities or trying to make sure GLSEN Greater Wichita runs smoothly, she enjoys traveling with her family, reading, writing, and capturing her family's memories in albums. Liz GLSENs when she sees empowered LGBTQ students and allies creating positive change in their schools and communities.
