WORKSHOP DESCRIPTION:

From small group discussions to whole class activities, in this session we'll share 10 ways you can get your students up, moving, and communicating while using technology for both inside and outside learning. Come play, create, and explore with us!

PRESENTER: Dyane Smokorowski

Dyane Smokorowski is the 2013 Kansas Teacher of the Year and is currently serving as an Instructional Technology Coach in the Andover Public schools. Mrs. Smoke, as she's known to her students, believes in a project-based, student-centered classroom that helps students build skills in communication, planning, research and project implementation. She wants her students to develop a love for literature, communication and technology, but also to understand how to use that love and passion to advance their own future, as well as that of their community.
