Workshop Description:

How do we address learning loss at a classroom level, and our competencies, and standards, and social-emotional needs, and... and... and... Let's come together! This workshop series is about great strategies to teach all the different learners in our classrooms. We will demystify the elementary ELA competencies, learning loss, standards and empower participants to know - You've got this!

Presented By: Katie Perez

Katie Perez has served as a learning consultant at ESSDACK since 2015. A former Region 1 Elementary Kansas Teacher of the Year, she earned her master's degree in Curriculum & Instruction with a K-12 Reading Specialist endorsement and a Building Administration endorsement from Fort Hays State University. Katie believes that classroom instruction should include relevant, hands-on learning opportunities in which students are authentically engaged in project-based learning. A large part of Katie's work at ESSDACK focuses on supporting educators as they become trauma-informed. Katie has been researching and speaking about the science of hope since 2007. She says, "Hope guides me in all endeavors. I believe in the power of engaged educators to build significant relationships with young people to encourage, inspire, and build great lives."
